Mini Tons of Love in the La Joya Church

This year our three remaining satellite churches (churches without pastors) had mini tons of love outreaches in their perspectives communities. We were not able to go to all three churches to participate in this event but my wife, Ximena, was able to go to the La Joya church to be apart of their outreach and take photos of it.

child received a toy plus a clothing item while the more than 30 adults that also attended received clothing and food items. Just as a thought I know for a fact that the mini tons of love in our Aplao church blessed more than 223 children as well as more than 216 adults in six different locations! What a great way to celebrate this Christmas season, being a blessing to those that are less fortunate than ourselves. For when we bless the poor we lend to the Lord and the Lord Himself will repay us for our loan to Him!
