PRAYER LETTER

August 2007

Greetings everyone in the name of Jesus!

Thank you for all your prayers throughout this year as I have been traveling to our satellite churches (Camana, Aplao, La Joya, Cocachacra and Mollendo) conducting seminars! Our focus in these seminars has been three-fold: First we focus on getting the people excited about the vision of the church which is to reach their city for Christ; second, we focus on motivating them to get more involved in personal evangelism so they can do their part in winning others to Christ; and last but not least we provide the Word to equip them. It has been a great blessing to see a real hunger for the Word in each church. As we continue this labor, I want to encourage you to keep praying for the work that has been planted in Peru. With your continued prayer, you will be sending showers to the seeds we have sown to insure that the seeds will take root and grow in each church. Paul knew this principle and it is the reason why he would continue to pray for each church he ministered to. He prayed that the image of Christ may grow in them and that the people would take to heart and do the things he taught them. Our desire of course is the same; we want to see each church grow in Christ so that they may reach their cities with the Gospel! I want to encourage you to keep those prayers flowing; no harvest or work of God is ever complete without the effective prayers of the righteous showering it!

My special prayer for all my partners is the following from the book of Genesis 8:22;

22. While the earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease.

We can all benefit from these good words from God. We have this confidence from the Lord that certain things will not cease while this earth remains! What I want to deposit in your heart today are the two words 'SEEDTIME & HARVEST!' Because it is good to know that you can always count on a harvest when you sow your seeds. And so dear partner, when it comes to the financial seeds you have sown in your church, in ministries such as CDMI, and in the lives of the people around you, REJOICE; harvest time always follows!

I leave you with these words from my heart "Never cast away your confidence in sowing because your harvest will always come."
